Netwrix Corporation appoints Drulogic Technologies as its distributor for India

Leading IT auditing company “Netwrix Corporation”, appoints “Drulogic Technologies”, a startup distribution company from Mumbai, India, as its distributor for the Indian Market.

This partnership allows “Drulogic Technologies” to begin selling the “Netwrix Auditor” to its SME, mid-sized business and Enterprise customers, through its reseller network in India.

Netwrix Auditor is a platform that maximizes visibility of IT infrastructure changes and data access by providing actionable audit data about who changed what, when and where and who has access to what. Netwrix Auditor helps prevent security breaches caused by insider attacks, pass audits and minimize compliance costs or just keep tabs on what privileged users are doing in the environment and why.

Netwrix Auditor platform enables auditing of the broadest variety of IT systems, including Active Directory, Exchange, File Servers, SharePoint, SQL Server, VMware, Windows Server and others. It also supports privileged user activity monitoring in all other systems, even if they do not produce any logs, via user activity video recording with the ability to search and replay.
